This past weekend, 7 teens along with 2 chaperones attended the Steubenville High School Youth Conference. An amazing time was had by all. Two of our teens attended LEAD the week before the Conference. LEAD is a dynamic leadership opportunity for teens that are ready to step up to the next level in leadership and evangelization. Francesca Carbone and Emilia Havlicek attended LEAD, and both were blown away and said their faith had grown immensely. The theme of this year's conference was "In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him."
(Revealed 1 John 4:9)

Hosted by Steve Angrisano, with music by the Josh Blakesly Band, and followed by the most amazing Catholic speakers, Lisa Cotter, Sean Forrest, Dan Harms.m and Father Jonathan McElhone, TOR.

 perience. What an amazing faith-filled weekend!

Look for all Youth Write-Ups...Here's the First...

Francesca Carbone's write up: Attending Franciscan LEAD this past week has become one of the most life changing and spiritually enriching experiences of my entire life. I have attended many Steubenville conferences in the last couple years, and although they have been more than amazing, LEAD completely redirected the way that I look at and understand the deep connection that my faith and God has to offer. I would have never thought that a week-long trip like this would open so many doors and realizations within my daily life. I believe that I can proudly comprehend and state that I am a true follower of the Catholic religion and a child of God. I have learned how impactful my faith is to me and others around me, and I wish to share that gift with those around me. The fellow teens that I attended LEAD with have become people that I now share one of the closest bonds with and I will be forever grateful for all the love and friendship they have given me. I cannot thank the parish of St. Peter's, especially Ms. Barbara Jackowski, enough for sending me on the incredible and miraculous journey that I will never forget.

Have you noticed on your St. Peter church calendar how many feast days are coming up in August?

Some other noteworthy days: Monday, August 6: The Transfiguration of the Lord

The brightness with which He shone on Mount Tabor was not something added to Christ but the manifestation of His true divine nature. For Peter, James, and John, it was also a glimpse of the glories of Heaven and of the resurrected body promised to all Christians. When Christ was transfigured, two others appeared with Him: Moses, representing the Old Testament Law, and Elijah, representing the prophets. Thus Christ, Who stood between the two and spoke with them, appeared to the disciples as the fulfillment of both the Law and the prophets.

Wednesday, August 15 is a Holy Day of Obligation:

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary—Vigil Mass Tuesday at 6pm—Mass Wed. at 9am

Wednesday, August 22—The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary
