A New Year's Wish for Hope, Peace, and Fraternity

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

The transition from the old to the New Year can be a time for reflection on the past along with hope for the future. As we look back on the previous year, we are reminded of the many challenges the Church and the world are facing right now. Still, amid these trials, we can place our trust in God and have hope for peace in the world, for the Church, and for our own lives.

Thus, it is very fitting that the New Year is brought in with the Solemnity of Mary, The Holy Mother of God, a Holy Day which celebrates Her divine motherhood of our Savior. We can learn to have unconditional trust and hope in our Lord, among doubt and fear from Mary's example, as we deal with our own and to know we are not alone. Mary is with us, our "Queen of Peace." Accordingly, New Year's Day is also celebrated as the "World Day of Peace."

My dear sisters and brothers, we can only have peace if there is fraternity among us. Pope Francis said during his "Urbi et Orbi" ("To the City and to the World") benediction at Vatican City on Christmas Day: "My wish for a happy Christmas is a wish for fraternity. Fraternity among individuals of every nation and culture. Fraternity among people with different ideas, yet capable of respecting and listening to one another."

I wish you all a New Year filled with hope and peace, brotherhood and sisterhood among us, and health and happiness in the Lord.

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit" (Romans 15:13).

Happy New Year to you all!
