Lent is just over two weeks away.

This Lent our #ShareJesus series will have four exciting parts to it:

1. We will start by focusing on the what and the why of the things we do as Catholics.
2. Each Thursday instead of a pre-recorded video, we will do a live video where you can join in the conversation.
3. We will go through the Stations of Cross as Lent continues.
4. Finally, we will examine the seven last words of Christ, featuring the Sisters of Life.

This series is about you growing in your relationship with Christ but also helping you share your faith with others. Make your Lent amazing.

Question from a CCD student:
My Grandma says I shouldn't play hockey on a Sunday. I don't want to stop, but I want to do the right thing. What should I do? Hockey lover

Dear Hockey Lover:

You have to know the rules when you play hockey. Let's look at another rulebook—the Ten Commandments.. To answer your question: the Third Commandment states, "Remember to keep holy the lord's day.: For Catholics, that means attending Mass on Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation.

The Commandment also reminds us to keep balance in our life. We need to work, rest, play and take time to worship God with our families.

The Catholic Church recently wrote a special document about sports that said families can enjoy sports on Sunday, but only if it does not interfere with Mass attendance.

SUNDAY GOSPEL:

Jesus said to love your enemies; do good to those who hate you. Bless those who curse you and pray for those who treat you badly.

When someone slaps you on one cheek, turn and offer the other cheek. If someone takes your coat, offer them your shirt also.

If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. Love your enemy and do good; lend without expecting repayment. Then your reward will be great. You will be called children of the Most High.

Be compassionate as God is compassionate. Do not judge and you will not be judged. Give and gifts will pour out for you!
