Planned Giving:

There is no greater satisfaction than knowing that your personal property and accumulated wealth will be shared with family and loved ones. Whether your estate is large or small, you should make certain your property is distributed exactly as you intend. If you wish to remember ST. PETER CHURCH, this can be done through careful preparation of your will. For more information, contact the Parish Office (Nancy) at 305-872-2537 or call the Archdiocese of Miami Office of Planned Giving at 305-762-1110.

"The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." (Acts 13:52)

The disciples heard Our Lord's call and were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we make room for the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts. When we use our gifts in the way that God intends. He fills us with supernatural joy. A joy that others notice and are attracted to.

In Memoriam

Remembering those who have died recently:

+Cathy Canfield, former parishioner and Food Bank Volunteer

...May she come to rest in the peace and love of God forever.

(If you would like to schedule a Mass intention or need an address for next of kin, please call the office)

Pope Francis and Motherhood:

"Mary is the mother, and a mother worries above all about the health of her children, she knows how to care for them always with great and tender love. Our Lady guards our health. What does this mean: Our Lady guards our health? I think above all of three things: she helps us grow, to confront life, to be free. A mother then thinks of the health of her children, teaching them also to face the difficulties of life." Pope Francis

1. Our lady helps us to grow: Mothers everywhere, in the image of our Blessed mother, encourage their children to grow in every way possible—to reach beyond themselves and strive for great things. Mothers, most especially, guide their children to grow in Faith by teaching through example.
2. Our Lady helps us to confront life: through the inspiration of the Blessed Mother, mothers teach their children how to be strong to face the difficulties in life. They teach their children balance and how to take and embrace risks.
3. Our Lady helps us to be free: through Mary's original "Yes!" to God, she emulates freedom for all of us. The freedom to say yes to God's plan for us and to accept the task of making good decisions that root themselves in love.

Each May, we take the time to honor our mothers, and in a special way, Mary, the Mother of God. The connection between the two is a powerful force fused in the heart of God. We do well this month to honor both of these women as best we can, and any other woman whose influence has changed our life. Salve Regina!

From Archbishop Wenski:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
On the weekend of May 18 & 19, our diocese will take up a collection for the Catholic Communications Campaign (CCC). Please prayerfully consider supporting the collection this year. Fully 50% of collected funds stay right here in the Archdiocese of Miami, while the other 50% of funds support communications projects around the world.

Your generosity provides the Archdiocese Communications Office with resources for sharing and spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ through the technology available in today's world, it funds the Sunday TV Mass in Spanish airing on Univision, interview & media training for our newly ordained priests, my Christmas & Easter video messages to the South Florida community, and on-going communication training for parish ministries & priests.

In the Philippines, the island of Samar is home to nearly two million people, about 90% of whom are Catholic. Many live in remote villages outside the reach of tv and internet. Instead, radio is a critical source of information. The Catholic Church has provided the people of Samar with spiritual programming through a dedicated radio station for 20 years. But in 2013, Typhoon Haiyan hit the island. It destroyed the entire radio station. The community has been unable to fund a new station, but the CCC is now helping the local diocese to rebuild the station. Because of you, people can once again hear radio programs that deepen their faith. It is through your generosity that this project and others like it can spread the Gospel around the world.

Support the collection and connect with Christ.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas G. Wenski,
Archbishop of Miami

Happy Mothers Day from the

The Steubenville Youth Conferences, an outreach of the Franciscan University of Steubenville, are a series of 25 conferences across North America that help teens encounter the love of Christ every summer. Our mission is to build the Church by evangelizing, equipping and empowering God's children to become radical and joyful disciples.

The Conference is open to all teens entering 9th –12th grades. It will be July 19-21 in Orlando, FL.

The Conference theme is "See what love the Father has bestowed on us, that we may be called children of God." (1John 3:1) For more information, contact Barbara Jackowski at 305-304-8191.

The Youth Group will meet this Sunday,
May 12, at 5:30pm in the Ministry Center.
