Prayer for the Rebuilding of St. Peter Church:

Heavenly Father,
We ask your blessings on all those involved
in our church rebuilding.

We ask you to guide the minds and the hands of the planners and workers and may they know they are doing Your work.

We ask you blessings on those who have made the rebuilding possible through their generous donations that their lives
may be enriched.

We ask your blessings on the family of St. Peter that we may continue to flourish through the challenges we face as we rebuild and renew ourselves as true and loving community.

May we listen to Jesus' words and act on them so that we will be like the wise man who built his house on rock
and pray the psalm..

"Only goodness and love will pursue me all the days of my life. I will dwell in the house of the Lord for years to come."

Amen

Mother's Day

Mothers Day is May 10th

As we honor the caregiving women in our lives on Mother's Day, please join our St. Peter family in praying a Novena of masses for our mothers (a Novena is a prayer offered on 9 consecutive days or weeks for a specific intention). Since we will probably still be observing the quarantine, Fr. Jets will be privately celebrating Mother's Day Novena of Masses on Saturday, May 9th through Sunday, May 17th.

If you would like your mother's name included in this special Spiritual Bouquet, please email your mother's name (and indicate whether she is living or deceased) to Connie at connie@stpeterbpk.org or call the office. If you are able to, and would like to send a donation, please send to St. Peter Church 31300 Overseas Hwy. Big Pine Key 33043. It would be much appreciated.

More Saints for the Pandemic:

St. Therese of Lisieux: Therese died when she was 24, after having lived as a cloistered Carmelite for less than 10 years. She never went on missions, never founded a religious order, never performed great works. The only book of hers, published after her death, was a brief edited version of her journal called “Story of a Soul.” But within 28 years of her death, the public demand was so great that she was canonized.

She was born in France, one of 9 children, 5 of whom survived. Her mother died of breast cancer when she was 4 1/2 years old. When she was 10 years old, she became so ill with a fever people thought she was dying. She had a vision of Mary and was cured. Three of her sisters had entered the Carmelite convent, and Therese wanted to enter as well, but she was too young. She appealed to the Bishop who refused her. Her Father took her on a pilgrimage to Rome, and during an audience with the Pope, she begged him to let her enter a Carmelite convent. The Vicar General, who saw her courage, was impressed and soon Therese was admitted to the Carmelite convent that 2 of her sisters had already joined.

Her father suffered a series of strokes that affected him physically and mentally and was admitted to an asylum. As a cloistered nun, she was not allowed to visit him. He died in 1888. This began a horrible time of suffering when she experienced extreme dryness in prayer, but she persisted. She called her spirituality “the Little Way.” This meant performing everyday actions and suffering every injury in the presence and love of God. She died of tuberculosis in 1897 at the age of 24.

In the years following her death, Therese was credited with an extraordinary number of miracles. It was remembered that she once said “After my death, I will let fall a shower of roses. I will spend my heaven in doing good upon earth.”

She was canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 17, 1925. On October 19, 1997, Pope John Paul II proclaimed her a Doctor of the Church, the third woman to be so recognized in light of her holiness and the influence of her teaching on spirituality in the Church. Her parents, Louis & Zélie were canonized in 2015.

Saint Sebastian:

According to legend, Sebastian was born at Narbonne, Gaul. He became a soldier in the Roman army in about 283. He encouraged his fellow soldiers to remain firm in their faith, made many converts and cured many of them of their ailments. When it was discovered, during the reign of Maximian and Diocletian, during Maximian’s persecution of Christians, that Sebastian was indeed a Christian, he was ordered executed. He was shot with arrows and left for dead, but when the widow of St. Castulus went to recover his body, she found that he was still alive and nursed him back to health. Soon after, Sebastian intercepted the Emperor, denounced him for his cruelty to Christians, and was beaten to death on the Emperor’s orders.

In the 14th century when the Black Death was spreading throughout Europe, the Bishop of Florence, Italy had an altar built in honor of St. Sebastian as a means to stop the plague. After the plague was over, he built a church dedicated to the saint in gratitude. Sebastian was declared patron of plague sufferers because of his reported cures of those afflicted with many diseases.

ARCHDIOCESE OF MIAMI
Office of the Archbishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The coronavirus pandemic continues to pose new challenges for us all. Today, we find ourselves in a time of twin crises: the worst global public health crisis in our lifetimes and the worst economic crisis since the Great Depression. Yet, around the world, we are united in common purpose of caring for the sick, pursuing a cure, and lifting the human spirit.

As Christians still living in the world, we will experience all manner of trials and tribulations. The sufferings of Christ do not exempt us from suffering ourselves; but his sufferings seen in the light of his Resurrection give meaning and hope to our own. And so, even suffering does not take away our joy in the future promise of our own Resurrection. Easter convinces us not only that Jesus is risen – but that we would rise as well. Our Christian faith is born not so much from the acceptance of a doctrine but from an encounter with a person – with Christ, once dead but now risen.

For us, to live in Christ means that we will never allow the things of this world to distract us from the true purpose and goal of our existence. We must seek to do God's will in all things – even in the seemingly most mundane things. But doing God's will and following the commandments does not deprive us of joy but it is what makes true joy possible.

While I know some may not be able to contribute given the economic impact this pandemic is having on you and your finances, I pray that those who can continue to support their parishes are doing so. Your support is vital to the ministerial work of your parish. Please consider making an online donation through your parish website or this Universal Online Offertory Page. Your parish needs you!

As many continue to be impacted by the effects of the coronavirus, people are suffering. Please join me by helping those most in need during this difficult time by making a donation to the Coronavirus Emergency Fund. We will get through this, but we must do it together.

Joy is a sign that we have been with the Lord. And this joy comes by not only following God's law but also from knowing God in his son Jesus Christ. It comes from experiencing his mercy and grace and sharing in his divine life. Our witness will be that much more credible if it is joyful – our joy allows God to smile through us and thus – even in this time of a health and economic crises – to bring renewed hope to the world.

I invite you to continue to visit our website, www.miamiarch.org, for up-to-date information, live-streaming of liturgies, and other resources.

Be assured of my continued prayers for you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Thomas G. Wenski
Archbishop of Miami

Together, we can make a difference. Your gifts to the Archdiocese of Miami can assist in this path of greater evangelization and formation. To leave a gift for the future, please contact Nancy in the office at 305-872-2537 or the Office of Planned Giving at 305-762-1112 to learn more.

Stewardship Is...

Love in Action

"Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened up the scriptures?" (Luke 24:32)

How often do we take the time to discern what Jesus wants from us? Are our prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for us? If so, that's a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any relationship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time in silence to listen to what Jesus is asking of you.

PROMISE TO PROTECT

PLEDGE TO HEAL

If a child discloses to you, stay calm and listen to them. Listening is the most important thing you can do. This is not the time to gather information. Reassure them it was not their fault, and that you are there for them. If a child asks you to keep their confidence, explain that if someone is in harm's way, you are not able to keep the confidence and must respond in the best interest of the child. As soon as possible, report the disclosure to law enforcement or a child protection agency. Every adult in the state of Florida is a mandatory reporter and is required to report abuse if disclosed to them and also to report any healthy suspicion of abuse.

Building Committee:

We remain on schedule with our church construction. Most foundation excavation is complete, rebar being formed, and first concrete for support pillars will flow mid week. The new entry between the pavilion and the food bank will begin construction this Tuesday. This will form a "one way" traffic flow, and allow our green construction fence to be moved closer to the pavilion, making room to begin working on the retaining wall just inside the new fence line. Remember, we must raise the new building five feet above what was our ground level while keeping our new entrance roadway at level with the Ministry Center. We continue to pray for the health and safety of our contractors as they toil in near-record heat!

Food Bank Ministry:

Our number of clients has just about tripled in the last few weeks. Fortunately, our supply of food has increased as well due to our local farmers not having a market for their produce with schools, restaurants and cruise ships. Feeding South Florida has also been able to increase what they send us, as again, donations flow to them from supplier surpluses. Our local donations continue to be strong, for which we are very appreciative. The work of our volunteers has increased substantially, and we pray that their health and strong backs prevail.

Finance Council:

Again, thank you to all who continue to send in their weekly offerings. Direct Debit remains a convenient option. It is easily set up and just as easily changed or cancelled by you in the future. You remain in control.

If you are interested in Direct Debit, please take a minute, leave Nancy a message at 305-872-2538 and she will get back to you. It's a very simple process.

Thank you!

Marty Mara

Another prayer for the Pandemic

May we who are merely inconvenienced
Remember those whose lives are at stake.

May we who have no risk factors
Remember those most vulnerable.

May we who have the luxury of working from home
Remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.
May we who have the flexibility to care for our children
when their schools close
Remember those who have no options.

May we who have to cancel our trips
Remember those that have no safe place to go.
May we who are losing our margin money
in the tumult of the economic market
Remember those who have no margin at all.
May we who settle in for a quarantine at home
Remember those who have no home.
As fear grips our country,
let us choose love.

During this time when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other,
Let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors. Amen.
