From Archbishop Wenski: Guidelines for Reopening Churches for Mass

Dear parishioners,

As we reopen our churches for the celebration of the Mass and Sacraments with the People of God present and actively participating, we recognize that we cannot eliminate the very possible risk of infection from the novel corona virus or COVID-19. However, your parish priests and I are committed to mitigating the risk as much as possible. We reopen because we believe as Church that there are no substitutes for the reception of the sacraments and our first priority is to be the sign of hope and instrument of the salvation of the entire human race."

On Tuesday, May 26, parishes will resume celebrating daily Masses. (May 18 in Monroe County). However, social distancing will be required with approximately 6 feet separation between persons (except for family members from same household); worshippers are asked to wear a face mask and to keep it on during Mass, removing it only to receive Holy Communion. Hymnals, missalettes, holy water will be removed from the church; and the church and its facilities will be sanitized between services. Hand sanitizers are available at church entrances. In entering or leaving the church, and in approaching the altar to receive Holy Communion please maintain proper social distance. These arrangements will take some time getting used to and so you are asked to pay attention to ushers or others who may be directing. After Mass please do not congregate in the church or outside but make your way home.

During Mass, please do not hold hands (for example, during the praying of the Lord's Prayer), or exchange the Sign of Peace. While preaching or at the altar the celebrant will not use a face mask, but he and other ministers will when they distribute Holy Communion. (If anyone disagrees about the necessity of wearing a face mask, I would ask that person to wear it anyway - out of respect for and charity towards their fellow parishioners.)

Social distancing will reduce the numbers of faithful that can be accommodated - perhaps only 25-30% of your church's usual occupancy. Your parish priests -with input from their pastoral councils - will plan appropriately - perhaps by adding Masses to the schedule if necessary or setting up some type of "reservation system" to assure that everyone who wishes to attend can do so.

The dispensation from the obligation of attending Mass on Sunday continues indefinitely. Good judgment and reason should guide your decision as to when you should resume coming to Sunday Mass.

If you are sick or have flu like symptoms, stay home. If you are frail because of age or are vulnerable because of an underlying condition, or you are a caretaker of someone who is, it might be reasonable for you to stay home. If you are fearful, stay home.

These "home bound" parishioners should contact the parish rectory and arrange for the Sacraments to be brought to them.

We do not live in a risk-free world-we never have. There is a certain amount of risk we assume when we cross a street, or when we get in our cars to go to work or even to the corner store. We can never eliminate risk completely, but prudence helps us to mitigate risk whenever and wherever possible. So, when we cross a street, we go to a crosswalk and look both ways before crossing; when we get into our car, we make sure that it is operating safely, that the brakes work, etc. and when we make a turn we use our turn signals.

The corona virus, COVID-19, has introduced new risks into our lives -and until a vaccine is widely available, we will be unable to eliminate completely the risks, but we must prudently try to mitigate those risks wherever and whenever possible. For this reason, the entire world put itself into "lock down", practicing social distance, washing hands frequently, and pretty much staying at home as much as possible. The "lock down" succeeded in as much as the spread of this very contagious virus was flattened and our hospitals were not overwhelmed with COVID-19 cases. Nevertheless, a high price was paid by all - for all were affected even if not all were infected. Our lives were upended: schools closed, public gatherings limited, millions of jobs lost - and, to be sure despite these measures, many thousands fell sick and too many of our loved ones died.

In the Archdiocese of Miami, we suspended Masses with congregations present beginning March 16. However, we never "closed": our parish offices remained open, our schools, our Catholic Charities, our Catholic Health Services, our Pastoral Center all continued their operations. Priests continued making sick calls, hearing confession, and offering Mass daily. Through livestreaming of Masses, Bible studies and many other activities your priests strove to remain present to you, their parishioners. And while they could not celebrate Masses in church with you these past many weeks, they never failed in offering you, the people of God, their most "essential service" of their prayers.

Our civic authorities throughout the US and the world are slowly "unlocking" the various jurisdictions under their control even while scientists and medical professionals continue to urge caution. The novel corona virus is still among us - as is the risk of contagion. As we move to reopen, prudence - the ability to govern and discipline ourselves by the use of reason - must govern our actions. There is no substitute for good judgment.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Thomas G. Wenski
Archbishop of Miami

If you cannot attend Mass in person and attend on computer or tv, here is another variation of the Spiritual Communion prayer (often recited by Blessed Solanus Casey).

Lord, please come to me in Spiritual Communion.
Send your body and blood gushing through my veins. Send your love into my heart, my soul and my mind. Lift me up to your bosom and infuse me with your divine love. Amen

Our Lady of Fatima: On May 13th, 1917, three children in a sleepy Portuguese village were blessed with a vision of Mary, Mother of Jesus. She directed the children to pray the rosary for peace.
"O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee."

(Directions for how to pray the rosary on another page in this bulletin)

An important message for parents of our CCD students:

- Parents are always the primary teachers of their children.
- During this period of "Stay at Home", you have been asked to fully participate in the Education of your children.
- We, the Church, have asked you to bring Jesus and your faith back to the classroom of your home.
- We, the Church, have asked you to attend Mass with your children virtually.
- We, the Church, ask you to respond to the teachers of our CCD program and allow them to assist you in the continuation of your child's Religious Education.

Thank you! Honora Shaffer, DRE 774-239-2872 or Honora@stpeterbpk.org.

Good news!! The Confirmation class meets on Sundays at 9:30 virtually via Zoom. Please keep them and their teachers in your prayers!

"I am praying for them" (John 17:9)

Prayer is the foundation of our Faith and the foundation of Stewardship. Pray in good times and in bad. Prayer is always the first best option in any situation, not just the last resort. Pray for friends and family and for those who don't treat you very well. Pray to give praise to thank, and to ask God for help. Pray to see what God wants you to do with the gifts

Building Committee:

It is heartening to see visible progress every day. As you look at the photos taken this week, remember that the first 5 feet of the walls you see will wind up buried underground as we raise the property to meet current flood codes. Concrete for main support pillars is being poured today, back fill will start soon. Even though we lost 2 1/2 days due to heavy rains this week, we remain on schedule with our mid-February completion target...

And don't forget to check the TIME LAPSE VIDEO OF OUR CONSTRUCTION ON OUR WEBSITE AND ON FACEBOOK!

Food Bank Ministry:

When we closed last Wednesday, we had fed all our clients and had only 3 bags of commodities left going into this week, or about 150 bags short! Late Wednesday we received a shipment from Feeding South Florida, which, along with our usual donations from our good friends at Winn Dixie on Mondays, should get us through the coming week. We are not alone—all of the Food Banks in the keys are experiencing shortages, and all are having problems even finding food to purchase.

Unfortunately, this will only get worse as our "roadblock" comes down on June 1 and tourists flow back into our community putting additional stress on the allocations our grocery stores get from their suppliers. Remember, every little bit you can donate is more than a lot of your neighbors have. Prayer "donations" also appreciated!

Finance Council:

Just another reminder of how critical your continued financial support is during this construction season, Nancy McCrosson would love to set you up on auto pay by either weekly or monthly direct withdrawals. Give her a call—make her day! Call her in the office at 305-872-2537. We continue to thank you for your support !

Thank you!

COMMON PRAYER

for the 5th anniversary of

Laudato Si'

Loving God,

Creator of heaven and earth and all that is in them,
You created us in your own image and made us stewards of all your creation.
You blessed us with the sun, water and bountiful land so that all might be nourished.

Open our minds and touch our hearts,
so that we may attend to your gift of creation.
Help us to be conscious that our common home belongs not only to us, but to all of your creatures and to all future generations, and that it is our responsibility to preserve it.
May we help each person secure the food and resources that they need.

Be present to those in need in these trying times, especially the poorest and those most at risk of being left behind.
Transform our fear and feelings of isolation into hope and fraternity so that we may experience a true conversion of the heart.

Help us to show creative solidarity in addressing the consequences of this global pandemic, Make us courageous to embrace the changes that are needed in search of the common good, Now more than ever may we feel that we are all interconnected and interdependent, Enable us to listen and respond to the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor.
May the present sufferings be the birth pangs of a more fraternal and sustainable world.

Under the loving gaze of Mary Help of Christians, we make this prayer through Christ our Lord.

Amen

LAUDATO SI'
WEEK 2020

DICASTERIO PER IL SERVIZIO
DELLO SVILUPPO UMANO INTEGRALE

This is the 5th Anniversary of Laudato Si', Pope Francis' second Encyclical on care for our common home. The theme of this week is "Everything is Connected". This Anniversary launches a journey of transformation promoted by the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development, "as we grow through the crisis of the current moment by praying, reflecting and preparing together for a better world to come tomorrow."

Pope Francis said that "in this time marked by the pandemic we are more aware of the importance of caring for our common home," and he invited everyone to think about and undertake "a shared commitment to help build and strengthen constructive attitudes aimed at caring for creation."

May is traditionally Mary's month....if you don't regularly pray the rosary, this is an especially good time to start again.

How to pray the rosary

Follow each numbered step and hold the part of the rosary that corresponds with the color of the step.

- 1 Make the Sign of the Cross and say the Apostles' Creed
- 2 Say the Our Father
- 3 Say three Hail Marys
- 4 Say the Glory Be
- 5 Announce the first mystery and then say the Our Father
- 6 Say 10 Hail Marys while meditating on the mystery
- 7 Say the Glory Be (Optional: Say the O My Jesus prayer requested by Mary at Fatima)
- 8 Announce the second mystery; then say the Our Father and repeat these steps as you continue through the remaining mysteries.
9. Say the Hail, Holy Queen
10. Make the Sign of the Cross

Find the mysteries here:
<https://bit.ly/1hNNOc4>

Rosary Prayers:

Sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Apostles' Creed: I believe in God, the Father almighty creator of heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father: Our Father, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary: Hail Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou amongst women, And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for us sinners, Now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Glory Be: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Oh My Jesus (Fatima Prayer): O my Jesus, forgive us of our sins. Save us from the fires of hell. Lead all souls into heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy. Amen.

Hail Holy Queen: Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our Life, our Sweetness, and our hope. To thee we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then most gracious advocate, Thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this, our exile, show unto us, the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Pray for us O Holy Mother of God, That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

Final Prayer: Let us pray. O God, whose only begotten Son, by His life, death, and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech Thee, that meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

We Can't....but God Can!

Why things happen as they do
We do not always know,
And we cannot always fathom
Why our spirits sink so low....
We flounder in our dark distress,
We are wavering and unstable,
But when we're most inadequate
The Lord God's ALWAYS ABLE....
For though we are incapable,
God's powerful and great,
And there's no darkness of the mind
That God can't penetrate...
And all that is required of us
Whenever things go wrong
Is to trust in God implicitly
With a FAITH that's deep and strong,
And while he may not instantly
Unravel all the strands
Of the tangled thoughts that trouble us
He completely understands...
And in His time, if we have FAITH,
He will gradually restore
The brightness to our spirit
That we've been longing for...
So remember, there's no cloud too dark
For God's light to penetrate
If we keep on believing
And have FAITH ENOUGH to WAIT!

*In these troubled times, you may feel isolated and helpless and that God has forgotten you.
But remember, God has promised He is always with us and will never abandon us!
So as you read this try to reflect on its meaning and be encouraged that God will guide you through the darkness

And when you remember that we are remember, God is with

Prayer for the Rebuilding of St. Peter Church:

Heavenly Father,
We ask your blessings on all those involved in our church rebuilding.

We ask you to guide the planners and workers and may they know they are doing Your work.

We ask you blessings on those who have made the rebuilding possible through their generous donations that their lives may be enriched.

We ask your blessings on the family of St. Peter that we may continue to flourish through the challenges we face as we rebuild and renew ourselves as a true and loving community.

May we listen to Jesus' words and act on them so that we will be like the wise man who built his house on rock
and pray the psalm..

will pursue me all the days of my life.

I will dwell in the house of the Lord for years to come."
